President, LMCES, Prof. P.M. Hormese, Director, Dr. V.Syam Prakash, Principal, Mr.Philip John, Secretary, LMCES and various other dignitaries graced the occasion. The theme for EQUINOX 2018 was “Empowering Divyang” – qualifying the ‘limb’ with divinity, instead of the term ‘Viklang’ which was used for persons with disabilities. The events on both days were wrapped up with ProShows. The music performance on 16th March by Mr. Niranj Suresh, Ms. Gowri Lekshmi and the water drum performance by Sonu Sebastian and Ricky Brown attracted the audience. The DJ by Candice Redding on 17th March 2018 was exhilarating for the students.

It was a tight race with super-talented students from colleges all over the state participating in various events like Voice of EQUINOX, Maschera, ABCD, Spot De Choreo, Octaves, Kill the Beat, Fascino and Dubsmash. All the cultural events gripped the audience with some knock-out performances. Students were also able to showcase their technical skills through various technical fests conducted by individual departments.

Event 3: Collage Competition - March 2017

• LMCST celebrated "Athena 2017" on International Women's Day on 8th March 2017. The chief guest for the function was Ms. Aswathi S. Nair, Jwala Foundation fame. Ms. Aswathi is on a mission to make a difference in the lives of the destitute. Her motto "No more hunger" inspired our students to collect provisions to support the noble cause of eradicating hunger and starvation off the streets. Principal Dr. V. Syam Prakash launched the mobilization of the same by handing over a kit of provisions to her as a gesture of goodwill from the Lourdes Matha Family on the same day. The students also performed duet song and dance. The highlight of the celebration was a skit based on Women's Rights performed by students from various branches. Collage and Elocution competitions were conducted in this regard with "Women Empowerment" as the theme. Ms. Meenu L. & Ms. Jiji Stephen of S4 EC won the first prize for Collage Competition. Ms. Reshma S. of S2 EC bagged the first prize for Elocution.
